CONVENTION & EXHIBITION 2011

THE BUSINESS OF BATIK

INTRODUCTION

The Kuala Lumpur International Batik Convention (or KLIB Convention 2011) is designed to be the iconic event that showcases the multiple dimensions of Batik – art and craft, technique and technology, marketing and business – to the world.

The convention aims to be a platform to :

- Develop an international network of batik enthusiasts
- Foster closer ties among batik producing countries
- Create a forum for the batik craft and industry across the world
- Share techniques, innovations, technology and marketing strategies for batik craft and industry
- Focus on the long-term relevance, growth, progress and prominence of the batik craft and industry internationally.

In essence, the Convention will exemplify the coming together of the traditional and contemporary aesthetics in Batik art and craft, cutting edge technology and market-driven business strategies for the world to view and share.

PRESENTATION FORMAT

The Convention includes presentations in the form of papers, workshops, demonstrations, panel discussions and art and craft or multimedia displays. Presentations will be in English and Bahasa Malaysia.
